Highlights of the Fourth

In spite of the short time in the preparation, the fire department, in staging the celebration earned a lot of credit. It was one of the biggest and best celebrations ever held here.

Chief Tom Doley was torn between two duties—that of seeing that the celebration was well handled and attempting to keep in touch with Mrs. Doley and young Tom in a Reno hospital where the latter had just made his bow to the world.

Like everyone else who earn their daily bread, the firemen had tough jobs handling their work and at the same time keeping the celebration ball rolling. They may have neglected the former, we don't know, but they didn't allow the latter to suffer.

Worried faces scanned the skies a week before the Fourth as dark clouds gathered daily, but on eve of the celebration, the clouds disappeared reluctantly and perfect weather added to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Thousands of cars of all descriptions passed through Truckee during the three-day holiday period, but no serious accidents occurred. This may have been due to the diligence of the traffic officers, Captain Earl Personious and Sergeant Everett McKee of Auburn and Sergeant Charles McKee and Patrolman Barrick of the local squad. At any rate they put in three hard days and nights working. Only 40 traffic arrests were made.

Limited space may have handicapped the horse events, but a good show was presented. Clair Goode was the master of ceremonies at the corral and did a good job.

One of the busiest men in town on the Fourth was "Red" Miller, who presided at the fight arena. Red had matches going for the amusement of the crowd at all intermissions.

Too much cannot be said for the fine cooperation given the firemen by the Truckee business interests, the CIO and other organizations who aided in preparing for and financing the celebration. Without this teamwork, success would have been in doubt.

The two dances, one at Masonic hall and the second at the CIO hall, were largely attended and orderly.

Business in Truckee, in most instances, was far above par, according to bank deposits and reports of the merchants.

The parade reflected the cooperative spirit which predominated over the holiday. Many organizations and local firms went to much trouble to put beautifully decorated exhibits in the show.

Andre Armati may get bids from Hollywood following his performance as leader of the parade. Mounted on his white mule and attired in a costume that would put Pachito Villa to shame, Andre made a real hit.

All in all the celebration was a success and we are in favor of having them often.

The program ended with the horrible parade Monday night, a comic event and certainly a laugh provoker.

Steps Are Taken To Open Gates To Reduce Tahoe

Level of Lake Reported Highest Since 1918 At Tahoe

CLAIM DAMAGE DONE

Height Still Under Maximum Fixed By Secretary of Interior

RENO, July 7.—Charging the rise in the level of Lake Tahoe—now at its highest stage since 1918—is damaging shore improvements, California members of the Lake Tahoe Water Conference at a meeting in Sacramento this week took steps to petition the secretary of the interior to open the gates of the lake.

The level of the lake last Friday morning was 6228.71 feet above sea level, the highest since 1918 when a maximum elevation of 6228.70 was recorded.

The rim of the Lake Tahoe outlet dam near Tahoe City is 6330 feet above the sea level, but in 1935 Secretary of the Interior Ickes ruled that water may be stored up to a level of 6229.1 feet above sea level without infringing on the rights of riparian owners, the ruling to take effect upon completion of the upstream storage project at Boca. In the meantime the U. S. government and the Sierra Pacific Power company would have to agree before the gates could be opened.

Although the lake's level is now at its highest point in 20 years, the level was above the 6229 mark nine times during the period from 1902 to 1918. During recent dry years, the level dropped considerably, and many property owners built improvements comparatively low.

A. Armati, local garbage collector, with his three assistants spent almost the entire night sweeping and gathering up the trash and this morning for the first time in many, many months, and perhaps years, the main and side streets offered a clean, pleasing appearance. Now if they can only be kept that way all will be well.

Firemen Keep Tradition Of Truckee By Offering Fine Program

Truckee, through the efforts of the volunteer fire department with the cooperation of businessmen and organizations in town, maintained its traditional reputation here on the Fourth of July by presenting a fine celebration for its hundreds of visitors and townspeople. Nearly every minute of the time was filled with entertainment features—dancing, contests, racing, boxing, parades, band concerts, horse shows, and various other attractions.

In a last minute rally, supporters of Miss Stella Zorich came forward with 10,000 votes to give her the honor of presiding as Goddess of Liberty over her nearest contestant, Miss Ruth Moore, who was Miss Columbia. Both occupied important places in the parade and won the cheers of the onlookers.

Orland Sanders was master of ceremonies and presided at the loud speaker, while Chief N. F. Doley, general chairman of the committees, arranged the events in order and kept the program moving rapidly. Other members of the department assisted in the many details of the gala fete.

Despite the milling crowds with dense traffic and jammed places of amusement, officers reported that all three days passed without trouble—no accidents, no disturbances and all apparently having a good time.

The two dances, Saturday and Sunday nights at Masonic hall and the CIO hall drew large crowds.

In the scheduled contests Sunday the winners were announced as follows: greased pig, Bob Gheller; Climbing greased pole, Billy Waters; pie eating contest, Billy Waters; fat mens race, Bud Owens.

Unscheduled boxing events were staged throughout Sunday and Monday by Matchmaker James P. Miller, who kept things at the ring humming during all intermissions with snappy boxing matches between local boys.

In the scheduled matches on Sunday night the results were as follows: Bill McAdams won a decision over Bob Gheller; Billy Waters and Kid Freeman fought to a draw; A. Besio and Ernest Flemming battled two and a half rounds before Besio won a technical knockout; Vincent Alvarez and Rosari Nez of Westwood put on a fast exhibition to end in a draw; A feature bout between eight year olds, Freeman vs. Immer ended in a draw but earned the silver shower. In the main event, two heavyweights, Marion vs. Army fought four fast rounds to a draw, but won the applause of the big audience.

Bat Rierdon refereed the matches to the satisfaction of all.

Monday morning the parade was an outstanding feature. Many fine floats and decorated cars were in evidence. The judges, Frank Powell, Ed. Pearce and P. R. Nelson, gave the victory to the Knights of Pythias while the prize for the best decorated car went to the ladies of the CIO Auxiliary.

Music for all events was furnished by Tommy Johnson and his band from Auburn. The Buffalo Brewing Company supplemented the band with a public address system Monday.

In the thrilling water fight, the firemen won in a close decision from the CIO, but the latter evened the score by winning the tug of war contest from the smoke-eaters.

Monday afternoon's program included the horse contests under the direction of Clair Goode. Winners were Stanley Powell in the stake race, Claire Goode, musical chairs and Jerry Cavitt in the cow horse demonstration. In the junior division, Billy McAdams won the stake race; Elsie Edmunds, musical chairs and George Sanders, the cow horse exhibit.

BUDGET TIME

While Californians may ponder vacation budgets, budget of another sort are also the order of the day from now until August 30.

So when Californians take to the mountains and beaches they will not be forgotten back home. Their pocketbooks, and how much tariff they will bear, are matters now under scrutiny from county supervisors in 57 counties, city councils in 279 cities, school trustees in more than 3,000 school districts, local governing boards in hundreds of special districts. In other words, it's budget-making time, and Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer again have a place in the sun, if they'll march up and grab it.

For no one can say, when the budget is adopted at last that we had to take it and like it! Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer are specifically provided by law with a chance to have their innings and score a hit for their side. The local spending program is published and made available to all. Public hearings must be held before the budget is finally adopted. There is the taxpayers' opportunity to score. No system has yet been devised for winning a game by sleeping on the sideline. Alert action is needed.

Particularly so, with the boom for the High Cost of Living and Taxes showing few signs of slacking in any field, from increased funds for relief, the boom extends to notions for the national tax on our food.

Action and not regret, will ease the burden.

LET 'EM COME

California booster organizations, tops in advertising technique in all the nation, have been congratulated for bringing home the bacon—and the tourists—in normal business years. And they've been criticized just as emphatically by some who think their eulogies have played a part in bringing more than 400,000 penniless here during depression years.

However, a golden flood of tourists is rolling across our borders, too, intent on the pleasure-lands they've heard so much about, helping to bring the state income up to more reasonable levels, to balance in some degree the influx of unfinanced visitors.

TRUCKEE NOT NAMED BY GEN. FREMONT BUT GOT IT FROM MURPHY PARTY, 1844

Contrary to common belief Truckee River, from which the community derived its name, did not get its name from General John Charles Fremont but from the Martin Murphy Party who came overland from the Missouri River in 1844. The Murphy party was one of the largest and it was among the first to cross the Sierras using the Truckee Valley and they were the first to bring wagons from the U. S. into Sacramento Valley.

Like the Donner Party, which followed them by two years, they camped at what they called Truckee Lake, now Donner. Unlike their successors they had efficient leadership and saw to it that they kept the friendship of the Indians along the route. It was for their Paiute guide that they named the lake and river they believed flowed from it. In Eldridge's History of California nothing is said of the Indian being a chief and says that the party named the guide for a man of their acquaintance who he resembled. Hittell in his history says: "Owing to good management and to the conciliation of the Indians along the route they procured the services of an old Paiute chief who called himself 'Truckee'—for whom they named the river they followed—to pilot them to the Sacramento Valley."

Soon after the arrival of the party at Sutter's Fort in December a baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Murphy, Jr., SON and daughter-in-law of the leader and it was called Elizabeth. This little girl was said to be the first child born of U. S. immigrants in California.

"SCOOP" THURMAN FIRST CANDIDATE TO CANVASS ALL 19 COUNTIES IN 6TH DISTRICT

Allen G. (Scoop) Thurman, Colfax editor and candidate for the state assembly for the sixth district has completed the task of visiting the ten large counties in the district and in doing so has become the first candidate for this office to make the trips.

Thurman renewed acquaintances that he established four years ago as an unsuccessful candidate for the office against Jesse Mayo and reports are that his candidacy is being received with favor due to the fact he campaigned thoroughly in 1934.

THOUSANDS MOTOR TO OTAHOE REGION TO FETE HOLIDAY

TAHOE CITY, July 7.—Fourth of July at Tahoe proved one grand and glorious event, the weather ideal, despite chilly evenings. Literally thousands of cars poured into the district over the three-day holiday, resorts crammed to capacity and many private homes renting out extra rooms to the visitors. The Tavern reported the biggest Fourth in five years. The stream of tourists was a welcome sight to resort owners and business men who have been patiently marking time up to the first of July because of the cool weather which has kept vacationists at home.

Traffic Patrolman Gene Walker covered 235 miles of highway on Sunday, working without the aid of an extra man this year. Always standing by in case of an emergency is Constable Harry Johanson, who voluntarily took the special course for patrolmen at the California highway school in Sacramento last winter.

At 10:30 p. m. on Monday night only two minor accidents had occurred in this region, both taking place on the highway near the Tavern stables during the afternoon of the Fourth. The car of O. E. Kokola of Rocklin was struck unavoidably by that of Don Flannery of Tahoe when the former turned off the highway. Both cars were badly damaged. While investigating this accident, Wilma Wilson of San Francisco was arrested by Officer Walker for reckless driving. Descending the hill by the telephone office at high speed, according to Walker, she was unable to stop her car in time to avoid running into the rear of a machine driven by Norman Nelson, also of San Francisco. She received a cut lip, damaged car and split the gas tank of the Nelson car open. Joe Duffee, local plumber, narrowly escaped being hit head on by the Wilson car, quick maneuvering on his part preventing wrecking his own machine.

Patrolman Walker arrested between 15 and 20 persons over the holiday for minor infractions of the motor vehicle laws, principally for reckless driving, improper passing and speeding.

It is safe to assume that no where within the state were there fewer

DANCE PLANS FOR TAHOE SATURDAY ARE COMPLETED

TAHOE CITY, July 7.—Plans for the benefit Community Center dance at the local hall on next Saturday night, July 9, are progressing with enthusiasm as tickets are being sold up like hotcakes. A grand crowd is being anticipated. A special meeting is being held on Wednesday night at the Community hall for the purpose of completing last minute preparations, the committee headed by Henry F. Droste, consisting of Misses Patricia Droste, Eunice Duffee, Lillian Vernon, Jacquelyn Miller, Mrs. Joe Duffee, Mrs. Eleanor Swanson and Albert Henry, Jr., Douglas Smith and Carl Bechdolt, Jr.

Johnnie Gammick's orchestra from Reno has been engaged for Saturday night and dancing will continue from 8:30 p. m. to 1:30 a. m. Refreshments will be available and a good time is promised for all.

accidents over the Fourth of July season, in proportion to the volume of traffic than in the Tahoe region. A vital factor this year which contributed to the record, was the excellent work done on all local highways long before the holiday arrived.

The night of the Fourth offered a perfect background for the gorgeous display of fireworks, held annually. All along the lakeshore as far as the eye could see swift shafts of brilliant light shot heavenward as rockets burst above the lake's dark, glassy surface; a shower of rainbow colors illuminated the skies for a brief time, only to chase their scintillating reflections into sudden oblivion. The mountains echoed with the roar of cannon crackers, and everywhere were groups of spectators silhouetted on piers and beaches and lawns. Vying for top honors in displays around Sunnyside Bay were the Edwards, Olivers, Miltons, Westphals and Debenedettis, the latter adding the accompaniment of an accordion to the colorful pageant.

Earlier in the day the annual flag raising celebration was followed by a barbecue at Westlake. Guests included Mrs. Laura Westphal, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Westphal and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Mosher of San Francisco, houseguests for the week, Miss Barbara Westphal, Mrs. Mabel Swain and Clifford Smith.

POWER BOAT MEET SUNDAY AT TAHOE TAVERN PROMISING

TAHOE CITY, July 7.—Tahoe Tavern will be the scene of the Lake Tahoe Power Boat regatta on Sunday, July 10, at 10 a. m. Brooks Walker, commodore of the local body promises an exciting show with many new boats scheduled to appear along with the old timers this year.

A surprise is believed in store for many following the visit here over the week end of Oliver J. Brown, brother of Mrs. Otto Darlin, from Berkeley and Richard Lombardi of Oakland, who combined business and pleasure. It is known they have installed their new super-power spark plugs in some of the lake's fastest speed boats, which promises a greater burst of power than with the old type. Old timers are awaiting with interest this test of the new stunt on the day of the races.

The program will be as follows: Stephens race: 225HP speedsters of 26 feet or over; The championship of the lake, a free for all; the 300HP the exciting Bang and Go Back; the handicap; Relay; special races. A large crowd is anticipated and calm, clear weather is hoped for.

21 LABOR CAMPS OF 63 BAD

SACRAMENTO, July 7.—(UP)—The Department of Industrial Relations revealed that during the month of May, 63 labor camps were inspected and five reinspected.

Eighteen camps were listed as good 25 were fair, and 21, bad.

In the camps inspected it was discovered that 1,761 occupants were American born; 2,633 foreign born. Of the total 4,394 were men; 839 were women and 788, children.

NEED FOR PAID MEN AS OFFICERS FOR TAHOE IS STRESSED

TAHOE CITY, June 7.—Once upon a time, long, long ago, Tahoe residents could pile into the family automobile and hie them off to distant cities without a worry in the world, confident they would return to find all as they had left it. Nowadays, unless one is indifferent to loss, it is necessary to bring in the lawn, beach and porch furniture, lock all the doors and windows and confine the family pets in the basement with the hose and sprinklers. For a wave of petty thievery seems to be sweeping the region, articles disappearing at intervals.

During the past few weeks wood was stolen from the rear of Atherton's store, the county truck, parked in Tahoe City was relieved of its battery and gasoline, six blankets and some silverware taken from the S. P. sleeping car which is left parked on a siding, porch furniture was taken from Edward's Lodge and on and on infinitum. To date no trace of the missing articles has been found.

Constable Harry Johanson requests that any suspicious actions be reported to him to once by calling Tahoe City 350. On July 1 he will again start patrolling the highways and byways, a service of regular night inspection procurable by all home owners.

Charles J. Sadler of Reno, with property at Tahoe, is heading a movement among Tahoe homeowners to investigate police protection in the district. Johanson, called to Reno to discuss the matter with Sadler, explained that under present circumstances he is allowed only mileage, no salary being allowed, so he must seek other employment. No allowance is made for equipment or investigation. Request to the supervisors have not been satisfactorily answered.

Johanson, who has proved himself capable and conscientious in the discharge of his duties, offers as a solution of having two paid men who might be contacted at any time, day or night to patrol the district, covering 230 square miles throughout the year. Sadler suggested that if action is taken by the supervisors, the matter should be placed directly before the property owners to raise a special fund for the protection of their Tahoe properties. He invites any suggestions from those interested in better protection.

The piano tuner has been putting the center's new piano in condition and the new card tables have arrived for the hall.

SACRAMENTO, July 7—(UP)—If all the California citizens who aspired to public office this year were laid end to end, the Great Wall of China would suffer by comparison.

There are so many, in fact, that employees in the secretary of state's office and statehouse newspaper reporters are having no little trouble keeping all the records straight.

The 14—yep, just count 'em—candidates for governor paid a total of $34,000 for the privilege of having their names on the August primary ballot. No more than four, perhaps only 3, will survive for the November finals.

Let's survey the field in brief to see what faces Gov. Frank F. Merriam in his battle for reelection.

Lieut. Gov. George J. Hatfield of Merced is the chief contender among the Republicans and will give him a close race. Raymond Haight, also running as a Democrat and Progressive, might just as well save his $200 G. O. P. filing fee, observers believe. William E. Riker of Holy City is arousing comment with a freakish platform, and Francis Michael O'Conner, a politically unknown accountant of Los Angeles, entered the race at the last minute.

Turmoil describes the Democratic setup. Culbert L. Olson not only is after the Democratic toga but would like to sweep the Progressives and sidetrack Haight from the November ballot. The Bourbon nomination cannot be conceded to anyone, however, with such strong campaigners as congressman John Dockweller. J. F. T. O'Conner, Herbert C. Legg and Ray Haight, all of Southern California, and Sheriff Daniel C. Murphy of San Francisco.

Robert Noble of Los Angeles is the only cinch nominee because he is unopposed on the Commonwealth ticket.

The scramble for lieutenant governor is all the more intense with 16 squirrels in the cage. No less than 14 Democrats have sailed in their last year's hats, including Mrs. Gertrude V. Clark, of Sutter Creek, who is hoping her presidency of the California Parent-Teacher's Association.

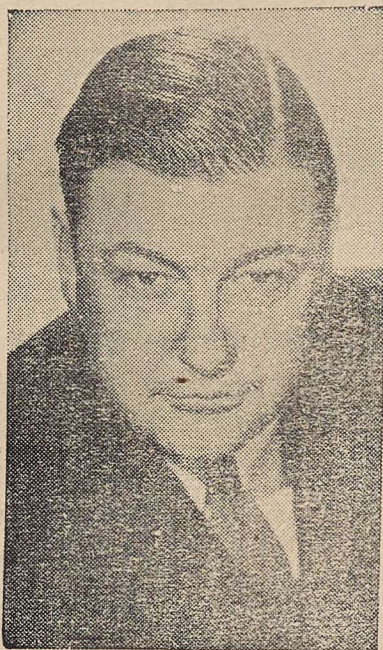

Picking a Democratic winner winner is impossible. Here's the array:

John M. Burnett, San Jose; Charles W. Dempster, Los Angeles; A. Frank di Cristina, Pacoima; Walter Scott Franklin, Santa Barbara; James M. Hyde, Hollywood; Zachary Malaby Pasadena; Roy J. Nielson, Sacramento; Ellis E. Patterson, King City; James Rolph III, Redwood City; Jerrold L. Seawell, Roseville; George E. Sheldon, Hayward; Ralph L. Welsh, Los Angeles; and another woman candidate, Genevieve L. A. Shaffer, San Francisco.

Republicans include Milton M. Golden, Los Angeles; Edward H. Tickle, Catalina; Franklin Nielson, Patterson, Rolph and Shaffer and Seawell. In addition Seawell, Patterson, Rolph and Shaffer filed as Progressives and the latter two repeated on the Townsend party.

A surprising number of candidates are seeking to unseat Frank C. Jordan, veteran secretary of state. Jordan himself filed both Republican and Democratic. Arthur A. Allen, of Long Beach; Milton Bryan, Leo Gallagher and Marye Shannon Harrington, all of Los Angeles, and John S. McGroarty, of Tujunga, oppose him as Democrats. None is giving him G. O. P. opposition. Gallagher also filed as a Communist and Nelli S. Harris,

Haight In '38?

A concentrated effort on the part of Senator Culbert Olson to rule Raymond L. Haight off the general election ballot appeared to have fallen flatter than a glass of stale beer on the Mojave Desert. Mr. Haight remains the undisputed leader of the regular Progressives as well as the spearhead of a scholl of middle-of-road liberals. Olson supporters in the rush for explanations said that Olson did not believe Haight to be sincere but merely a political opportunist. Then they recalled that Olson had vacillate always to what appeared to be the strongest side both in California and Montana politics and records show Haight to have been consistent to a point of error and said that the filing of Olson on the PCF ticket was at the instigation of several prominent Progressives, in their haste to change their story they failed to name even one registered Progressive. However we are sure they can name one.

Tries Comeback

C. Ben Ross, three times governor of Idaho, who has announced he will campaign for the office a fourth time. In 1936 William Borah defeated him for the U. S. Senate.

dan himself filed both Republican and Democratic. Arthur A. Allen, of Long Beach; Milton Bryan, Leo Gallagher and Marye Shannon Harrington, all of Los Angeles, and John S. McGroarty, of Tujunga, oppose him as Democrats. None is giving him G. O. P. opposition. Gallagher also filed as a Communist and Nelli S. Harris,

LOS ANGELES WAR VET FILES FOR SENATE TOGA

The gesture of Pierson M. Hill in withdrawing from the Democratic Senate race to concentrate the opposition to the incumbent William Gibbs McAdoo this week appeared to have been a futile one since another man filed for the nomination at the eleventh hour. James Mellen, 39 year old Los Angeles war veteran and attorney, filed for the nod as a Jeffersonian Democrat.

Mellen was a member of the Roosevelt for President Committee in 1932 and actively advocated the election of McAdoo in that year. He first split with the administration over the N. R. A. Mellen predicted the measure would be declared unconstitutional long before it actually was.

Mellen was born a Hoosier. He was 17 when he quit school to join the army. He served 16 months in France in the last World War and was shot at the battle of St. Mehiel and was cited for outstanding service by Gen. John J. Pershing.

Mellen explained that he waited until the deadline to file because he was waiting, in vain, for some other progressive Jeffersonian Democrat to file.

EL DORADO ENTRANCE TO LAKE TAHOE IS IMPROVED

Completion of four and one quarter miles of highway between El Dorado and Clark's Corner, West of Placerville on the Placerville Road to Lake Tahoe, completes another important link in the improvement of this route to the lake, reports the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club. A new bridge across Webber Creek has been finished and the new highway eliminates most of the former old-type narrow and winding highway which had to be traversed between El Dorado and Placerville.

—TRADE IN TRUCKEE—

of San Diego, will get the Prohibition nomination. But Jordan is almost certain to remain in his swivel chair until 1942.

The visit of the president this summer is almost certain to influence the fight for United States Senator. William Gibbs McAdoo boasts his "My Dear Mac" letter from the president and will be banking on Roosevelt's personal support to keep in the capital city for another six years.

With Pierson Hall out of the race in favor of Sheridan Downey McAdoo chief competition looms between Democrat Downey and Republican Ray Riley. Downey polled a heavy vote for lieutenant governor in 1934 while Riley is well known for his many years as state controller. Philip Bancroft may surprise with a reportedly heavy agricultural vote.

Democratic aspirants are McAdoo, Riley, John W. Preston, Downey, J. W. Mellen and Roland C. Casad. L. W. Watkins, Bancroft, Casad, Riley have all qualified as Republicans.
